Okinawa — my hometown, err, island! One of the reasons I joined the Marines was to go back to Okinawa. (^_^)

Orientation training — despite my bilingual capabilities and the fact that I used to live in Okinawa, I still had to take this training and was stuck on base until it was over. Very torturous indeed. (T_T)

Konnichiwa = Good afternoon. Arigato = Thank you

Pocky — chocolate covered pretzel sticks. Awesome snack! And comes in many flavors!
